RICK MORRISSEY
SUPERVISOR

There was a report by the New York State Police of an attempted rape in the hamlet of Purdy's at the location of the Purdy's train station yesterday morning at approximately 8:00am. The State and Somers Police departments responded and an investigation ensued. State Police dogs were enlisted to assist in the search for a man who accosted a woman.

The suspected was not located and is suspected to have left the area. The MTA police are now the lead agency and are continuing to investigate this incident. Their number is (718) 361-2201 for any further information.

Be assured the Somers Police and State Police are on high alert and continue to look for the suspect. Should you have any information on this incident please call the above MTA number.
